Subject: Phone Service Disruption for Township Offices

The telephone lines for the Township's Administration and Community Services offices are currently experiencing intermittent disruptions. Anyone calling in to these offices may experience dropped calls and/or audio disruptions.

The Township is aware of the issue and has notified its service provider for repairs.

If you experience a dropped call or audio disruption while phoning in to the Township, please hang up and try your call again.

We apologize for the inconvenience and appreciate your patience while the issue is being resolved.

If you have an emergency, please call 911.

Further communication will be provided when the lines have become fully operational.
